UM TO OFFER PROGRAM FOR PROSPECTIVE OLDER STUDENTS

MISSOULA --

The University of Montana will offer a free program Saturday, Feb. 25, for people ages 22 and older who are interested in returning to college or enrolling for the first time.

"UM is Getting Older...And Better!" will be from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the University Center's Mount Sentinel Room. The UC is situated on the east side of campus below the "M" on Mount Sentinel.

Frank Matule, director of New Student Services, will discuss preparing for the classroom, and Ray Carlisle and Douglas Bead of the University College will address career options.

A panel of Phoenix students, members of a campus group of older, "non-traditional" aged students, will lead a question and answer session. Matule's assistant, Jed Liston, will discuss what UM offers by way of student services and how to apply for admission. Financial Aid Director Mick Hanson will talk about financial aid and scholarships.

To register or receive more information, call or write to UM's New Student Services Office, University of Montana, Missoula, MT 59812; 243-6266.
